Broadcasting's
decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is OUTRAGEOUS. I am appalled that a supposedly
"democratic" form of government would allow such blatant
corporate propoganda
be spread via public airwaves. I recall CBS recently refused to air a MoveOn.org's
commercial due to it
being "too
politically charged". Where is the fairness here?
If we are to be manipulated by Bush cronies, I want
Michael Moore's
"Farenheit 9/11" to be shown on the public airwaves.
Please listen to the PEOPLE, not the corporations. Thank you for your time.
